Believed to have established a record for potato yield in Bucks county, Assistant County Agent Paul T. Rothrock, Doylestown, this morning announced that Charles Luff and son, of Richboro, raised 780 bushels per acre of Katahdin variety.

In 1948 the ground was in wheat, but the straw was left on, said Assistant County Agent Rothrock, describing the steps which led up to the banner yield.

Kaiser-Frazer Halts Production of Autos

HOSPITAL GETS A VERDICT FOR MORE THAN ASKED

The Jury Awards $1597.33; Suit Was Filed For $1410.61

JUDGE DAVIS RULES

Tells Jury That A Charitable Institution is Not Liable

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 15 — The Friends Hospital, Philadelphia, was given a verdict for $1597.33 on Thursday. It was suing for $1410.61 in civil court. The jury deliberated nearly two hours.

Since the verdict of $1597.33 was in excess of the claim, which was $1410.61, attorney Webster S. Achey for the defendant, Frank Lipner and Trio Motor Lines, made a motion for a new trial.

Before counsel for the defendant began his summation of the case, which involved a two-truck accident on Roosevelt Boulevard, Sept. 22, 1947, Judge Fred W. Davis ruled that under the laws of Pennsylvania a charitable institution is not liable in a counter-claim action under the circumstances of this trial.

Judge Davis directed that the counter-claim in which the Friends Hospital became the defendant and the original defendant, Frank Lipner and Trio Motor Lines becomes the plaintiff, be taken away from the jury.

The Court gave binding instructions to the jury to return a verdict in favor of the defendant in the counter-claim action.

Counsel Achey asked that Judge Davis poll the jury to determine why the verdict was in excess of the claim. "I think the jury added the interest since Sept. 22, 1947, which was not asked for in the claim."

"If you can show me any authority that the Court has the right to poll the jury in an action of this kind, the Court will do it, otherwise the motion is denied," ruled Judge Davis.

Thomas Ross, counsel for the Friends Hospital, proved that the claim for damages included $1321.41 for truck damages, $59.20 for milk and $30 for five 40-quart cans at $6 apiece.

"Your Honor," said Attorney Ross, "the jury has arrived at a verdict and there is no legal authority for questioning that amount."

The jury appeared once for additional instruction before arriving at its final verdict.

New Chemical For Fabric Stabilization

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15 — A chemical to impart stabilization and crush resistance to cellulosic fabrics, said to be entirely new and unique, was announced today by Rohm & Haas Company. Offered under the trade-name Rhonite R-1, the chemical is reported to have exceptional durability so that fabrics treated with it are completely washable. It is the result of extensive research and development in the company's textile laboratories. According to W. J. Thackston, Jr., sales head of the textile chemicals department, it has been thoroughly tested and evaluated in plant applications.

"The stabilization and crush resistance imparted to cellulosic fabrics by Rhonite R-1," Thackston said, "are more durable to repeated washings than the same qualities imparted by the conventional urea formaldehyde or melamine formaldehyde resins. The stabilization, in fact, approaches that imparted by the purely chemical modification of cellulose with aldehydes, while at the same time crush resistance is superior to that obtained by those methods, and application control is of the same order as with conventional resin treatments."

Rhonite R-1 is recommended for stabilization and crush resistance of rayons and rayon blends where exceptional durability to repeated laundering is desired. Stabilization of cotton may be obtained with as low as 3-4% applied solids.

The chemical is available for immediate shipment in commercial quantities, packed in 500-lb drums and priced at 33c per pound, f. o. b. Philadelphia.

TORPEDO FOR A COLD
Those who have tried to remain neutral in the feuds among the armed services will find it harder to do from now on, if a recent news story is confirmed. The Navy, it is revealed, has achieved something that neither the Army nor the Air Force could accomplish: It has discovered a way to torpedo the common cold.

Navy medics have concocted a new pill, which they call "coricidin" or "cold-killer." It contains aspirin and other standard cold remedies—none of which does more than make the symptoms of a cold a little more bearable without stopping it. It also contains one of the new anti-histaminic drugs.

There have been rumors circulating in magazines and news stories that the anti-histaminics sometimes worked well against the common cold. They were known to have value in treating hay fever and other allergies, whose unpleasant symptoms are largely due to excessive secretion of histamine by the body.

But the medical profession, quite properly, has hesitated to claim a cure until it has had a thorough controlled test. The Navy, in the spirit of "damn the torpedoes," has gone ahead.

Capt. John M. Brewster, Navy Medical Corps, tried coricidin on 572 patients. He reports that 90 per cent of their colds were cured if coricidin was taken within an hour of the onset of symptoms, 74 per cent if it was taken within 12 hours.

If these results stand up, the money of many people will be on the Navy from now on: A service that can cure the common cold can do anything.

Scientists claim only 52 per cent of the people are capable of hard work, which leaves plenty to do the heavy thinking.

Uncle Sam will shortly draw $150,000,000 out of the banks of the nation. He can hardly be getting ready to pay taxes, along with his subjects.

Pensions for all citizens offer great possibilities. Why not make them available at age 21, thereby increasing the years of their enjoyment.

The Roosevelts continue to carry on the tradition of the more abundant life, at least in matrimony. Score to date: Elliott 3, Anna 2, James 2, Franklin D. Jr. 2.

Toys featuring atonic bombs will not be on the market for next Christmas, but Junior should not be discouraged. There will always be another Santa Claus.

An automobile which since the war looked as if it might be coming or going, now has been redesigned to look as if it had been shot out of a submarine.

If, as the Wall Street Journal reports, some automobile dealers are beginning to offer free seat covers as an inducement to buy, can normalcy be far behind.

There's a big demand for small towns these days

let's sell ours!

A lot of big industries are de-centralizing. They are breaking up large plants into series of smaller ones. They are scattering them in small towns. Many of them feel their people can live better, healthier lives more economically in smaller towns.

Smaller towns that are smart are doing everything they can to attract these plants . . . now, while they are moving. They are bringing in new jobs, new residents, new payrolls, new stores.

Now, during Pennsylvania Week, we should start a year-round program to "sell" the merits of our community to industries.

The State Department of Commerce has helped other towns to launch new-business drives and can help us plan what we should do.

Pennsylvania Week is a time for all of us to do something for our community . . . and for ourselves.

Is your Pennsylvania keep it growing

ONE FLOOR OR TWO?

BRICK WALLS, BLACK SHINGLE ROOF, white trim and woodwork give this attractive two-story home a smart appearance. Or, say its designers, the walls might be of either frame or concrete block, and the roof of slate. The broad dormer window insures cross-ventilation for upstairs rooms.

By MARION CLYDE McCARROLL

WHAT kind of house are you looking for—one floor or two?

A cozily compact affair, with everything handily arranged for the comfort and convenience of a small family, that won't break the bank to build? Or has the family grown to the point where you feel every body simply must have a bit more elbow room, and your finances have grown, too, so that they can stand the strain of a more ambitious project?

If, like many another, you're in the first category, you'll be interested in the snug little

Its plan is the thrifty, rectangular type, thoughtfully designed in such a way as to provide ready accessibility for living and service areas, perfect privacy for the sleeping quarters. This is achieved by having the front door open directly into the good-sized living room, with a door across the living room to give access to a right-hand hall leading to the three bedrooms and bathroom, and to the kitchen on the left.

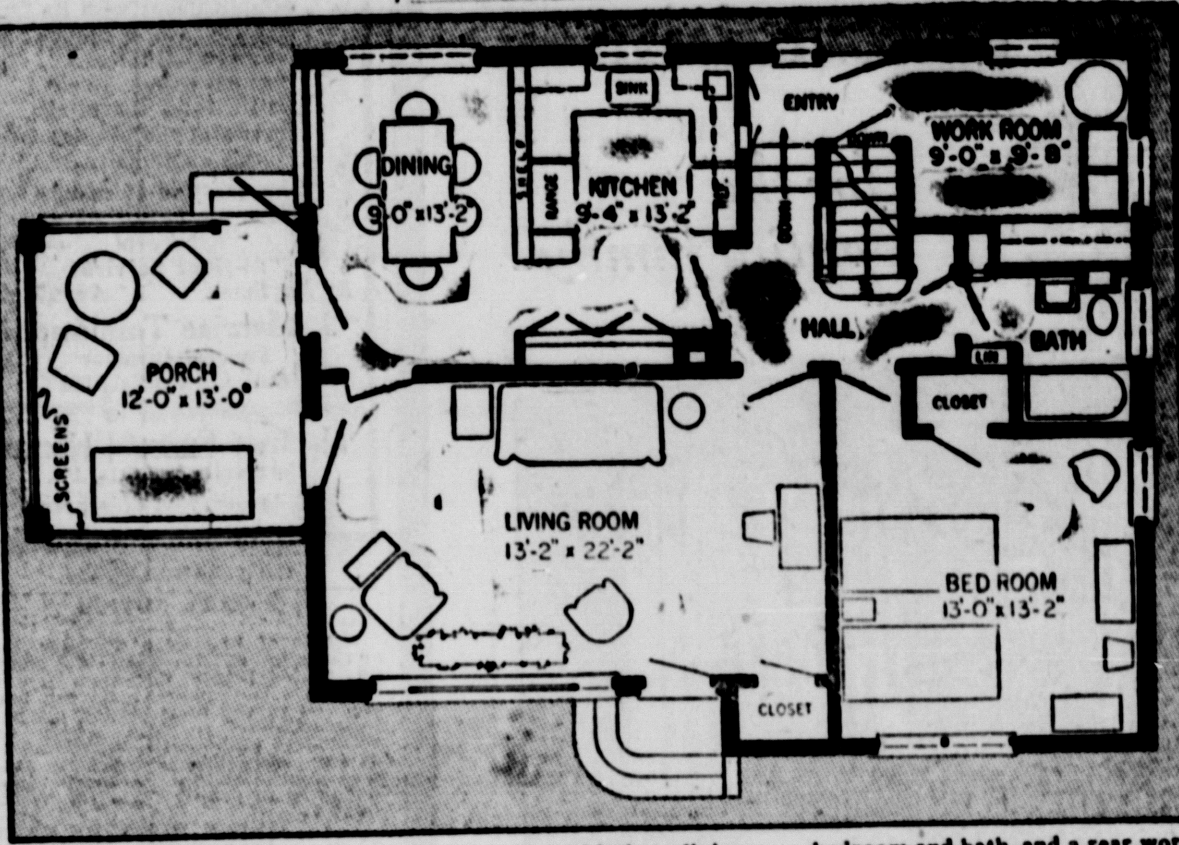

On the other hand, if you're so fortunate as to find yourself in the second group, you may care to consider the other house pictured. While this, actually, has no more bedrooms than the other, they are all considerably larger, and, if necessary, the work room could be adapted to serve as a fourth bedroom. This house has good dining space, and the fact that it has a down-stairs side porch with a deck above it, adds generously, to available living and recreation room in suitable weather.

A plan book, in which sketches of these houses, plans and descriptive material are included, is obtainable from the Letterite Company, Ambler, Pa.

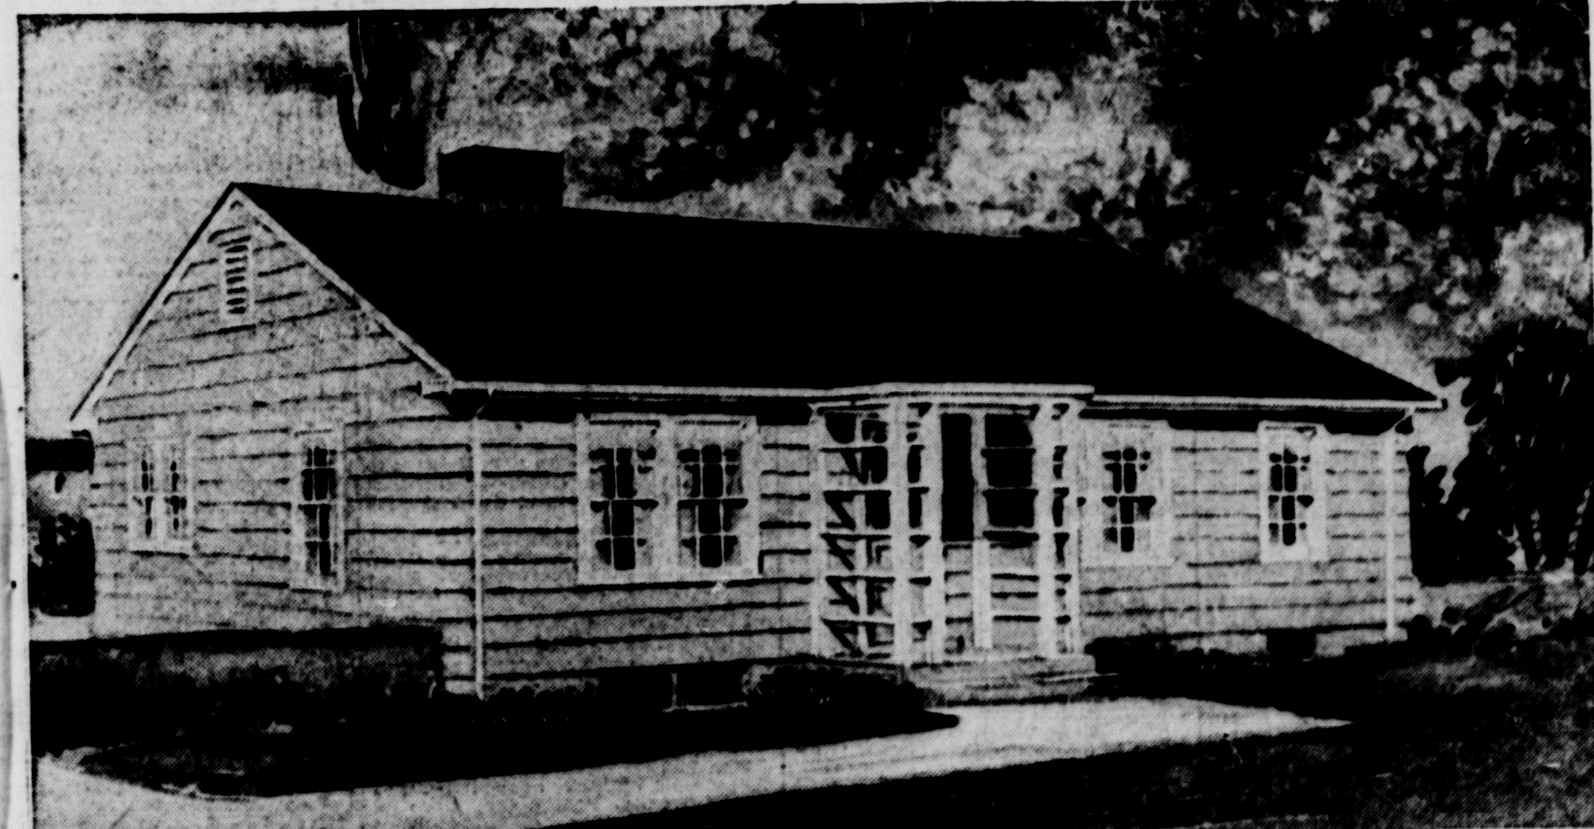

ONE OF THE FIRST THINGS any woman will notice about the two bedrooms above is their luxurious closet space. Delightful, too, is the sun deck off one of the rooms, providing, in effect, still another living room in summer.

THE FIRST FLOOR OF THE house has a large living room, kitchen, dining area, bedroom and bath, and a rear work room. A side porch is reached either from the living room or the service area, making outdoor dining easy.

DESPITE THE FACT THAT EVERYTHING is on one floor here, the arrangement of the rooms has been thoughtfully planned for complete privacy of sleeping quarters in the house below.

AS SHOWN, THIS COMPACT FIVE-ROOM house has a light shingle exterior, with white window trim. The addition of dark shutters would provide a pleasing note of contrast. An alternative plan might be to have dark walls, darker roof. It's built on the popular and thrifty rectangular plan.

Several Wills Probated; Heirs Have Been Named

Blanche M. Snyder, Quakertown, who left a personal estate of $17,500, named various beneficiaries of her personal possessions, including jewelry, silverware, antiques and monetary gifts.

The testatrix, who died Sept. 11, bequeathed ten shares of Quakertown National Bank stock to a sister, Irene F. Snyder, five to a brother, Rowland and Frank Snyder each.

Other beneficiaries include Irene F. Snyder, clothing, watch, silverware, furniture and jewelry; Lois Erlenmeyer Berry, mirror, rings and $100; Victor E. Erlenmeyer, furniture and $100.

Clara Well Stover, $200; Warren Pennell, Doris Snyder and Rowland Snyder, Jr., each $100; Rowland Snyder, tea pot and clock, and Frank Snyder, cream pitcher.

Rowland and Frank Snyder and Irene F. Snyder will share the residue. The will was dated Feb. 15, 1946, and the Quakertown Trust Co. was named executor.

A sister, Katherine F. Snyder, was named the sole heir of the $2,000 personal estate left by Florence A. Hunt, Bristol. The testatrix, who executed her will Sept. 27, 1937, died May 11, and the Farmers National Bank of Bucks County was named executor.

Eight beneficiaries will inherit the residue equally of the $5,000 estate of Robert Christy, Solebury township, who died Sept. 9. The heirs are Samuel O. Bogert, Baltimore, Md.; Robert H. Christy, Watertown, N. Y.; Sue Barrett, Margaret Christy and Amy Leigh, all of Philadelphia; Jessie Fulton, Trenton, N. J.; Ralph Stanlick, Ridgefield Park, N. J., and Helen Igler, Scranton.

The will was executed June 15, and Howard N. Detter, of Philadelphia, was named executor.

Do You Wait On Your Child?

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

OFTEN, when I see a group of high school students, I wonder how many take reasonable responsibility for the care of their own clothes. I wonder how many of the boys press their own trousers, how many of the girls wash their own hose and iron their washable garments. I wonder how many of the mothers represented in this school are the tailors and laundresses for these youths. I imagine I can see some weary mothers of the best dressed girls bending over a wash tub or hot iron or sitting up late at night mending the son's or daughter's garments.

I can even imagine seeing a boy about getting ready to go out on a date, rushing to his busy mother saying, "I would like these pants pressed," probably not even saying "please." I imagine hearing a daughter scolding her mother for not having mended the daughter's blouse or for not having ironed it better.

May Complain

Sometimes this mother so treated and imposed upon by her son or daughter wonders why she is treated so, and occasionally she may complain to the youth a bit. Yet she rarely will say a word but will go on patiently serving the young parasite in quiet silence.

It even may not enter the child's mind or the mother's that she should not thus slave for her adolescent children. She had always waited on them hand and foot and jumped at their beck and call. Nor can I quite see why a father would stand by in silence and let his older children so impose upon their mother.

Outwit the Father

Of course, some fathers do try to do something about the matter but the children, working on the mother's loving kindness and human frailties will outwit the father. But this father shouldn't put such heavy blame on the mother. He probably had done little or nothing to train these youths in their earlier years in sharing home responsibilities (My bulletin, "How Teach Child To Help At Home," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me in care of this paper), though he often may have done considerable scolding of the mother for not training them in self-care and responsibility.

To mothers of young children: Begin now to train your children so you won't be their cowering slaves when they are in their teens. I wish the mothers who are the slaves of their adolescent youths would resolve to break asunder the shackles and declare their freedom. Why should any high school boy or girl who is not a serious cripple or invalid expect the mother to be his tailor or laundress?

Home Responsibility

Have you ever known of a class or school assembly to discuss these matters with a view to making youths conscious of their home responsibilities? The appeal might well be from the angle of sportsmanship. Do you see any good reason why teachers should not aim from the kindergarten through high school to put a premium on self-care and home-sharing of responsibilities?

And I wonder how many of the college youths whose mothers do their laundry and mail it to them should? Isn't this practice usually a carry-over from early enslavement of the mother by youths at home?

it's a good rule for everyone

County P. T. A. To Meet At Richboro Saturday

Seldom has a county council assembly had the opportunity to hear so many state chairmen, and all local units are urged strongly to send as many delegates as possible to the meetings, especially officers and chairmen of the program, budget, finance, ways and means, and music committees. Every local unit, whether a Congress unit or not, may send as many delegates to council assemblies as wish to attend. While visiting delegates may not vote, as voting delegates may, every member of a local Parent-Teacher unit is asked to attend and benefit from the unexcelled source of inspiration and instruction in parent-teacher techniques.

Many Interesting Places Are Located At Washington Crossing

WASHINGTON CROSSING STATE PARK, Oct. 15—Next week will be "Pennsylvania Week" and it is anticipated that there will be numerous visitors here who are interested in the history of this site. Among the places of interest are:

On Route 532 and the Delaware River there is the old Ferry House Inn at the site of McConkey's Ferry. North on River Road is the marker of the Bucks County Historical Society marking spot where Washington's army crossed before the Battle of Trenton and the Washington Crossing Monument erected by Patriotic Sons of America.

North on River Road is more of the park with Bowman's Hill and the tower and wild flower gardens.

At the exit from the Wild Flower gardens the Thompson House with the English stone barns; across the road the old stone mill and up the creek the old Copper Mine.

Near the river the graves of the Revolutionary Soldiers.

Returning to River Road, north of the Thompson House turn left to the Thompson Memorial Church, where the resting place of several Revolutionary Soldiers and pioneers is in the church yard.

BRISTOL HIGH WINS OVER COUNCIL ROCK BY SCORE OF 19-6

In one of the best games played here this season, Bristol High downed the Council Rock eleven last night in a Lower Bucks County League tilt on the local grid-iron. Final score was: Bristol, 19; Council Rock, 6.

It was the first defeat of the season for the Council Rock team; and the first time this season that it was scored upon. It was Bristol's third win of the season and the first victory in Lower Bucks competition. The two points put the Warriors in second place in the league standing.

For the first time this season, the game of football was thrown wide open. Both teams used deceptive plays to the best of their ability with large gains being made by both sides. Aerials were thrown in all directions and all distances. Both teams waited for the breaks, roping tight one aerial that clicked would put it in the ball game.

It was waiting to check the Bristol passing attack that actually cost Council Rock a tie in the tilt. Time and time again, Harry Eisenbrey was in pass formation only to cross the Indians and run the ball to gain nice yardage.

Bristol had 14 first downs in the tilt while Council Rock had 10. Both teams had three first downs via the passing route while Bristol made 11 on rushes to Council Rock's seven.

The Warriors, with Eisenbrey doing most of the throwing, attempted 15 passes with four finding their mark and one being intercepted. Council tossed 12 passes with three completions and two interceptions. Council Rock had 25 yards lost on penalties while Bristol was set back 60 yards on penalties. Bristol lost a touchdown because of a penalty. Frank Rich out-punted Charlie Teschner, having an average of 35.5, while the Council Rock kicker had a mark of 33.4.

It was evident from the start that the tilt would be thrown wide open before it was over. The teams took it easy in the first session with each having one first down and three being several exchange of punts.

But in the second quarter, both teams made a score early in the onto. Bristol was first to score. Its drive started on the 30 yard line where a Teschner kick rolled out on a center plunge and "Whitey" Welker followed with three more. On a reverse, Daniel handed the ball to Welker and the whole Newtown team was boxed in as Welker scooted around end and found his way into the open for a 54-yard run. When Welker was spilled he was on Council Rock's 12-yard line. Welker carried the ball around end for a 4-yard gain but on the next play he was stopped in his tracks. Welker faked a play and Eisenbrey took the ball and slipped through the line for a first down about one foot away from the goal line. Welker then cracked center for the score. Monte's kick for the extra point was wide of its mark.

Following the touchdown, Council Rock pulled the surprise of the season. The Bristol cheers had hardly died down when Council Rock deadlocked the score. Monte kicked off to C. Teschner, who ran from the 10 to the 30. Russ Morris replaced Teschner and on a reverse went behind the line of scrimmage and tossed a pass which Don Warrick caught on the 45-yard line. Warrick was ahead of the two Bristol safety men and raced 55 yards to score, making the entire play of 70 yards. Frank Kerns hit the right side of Bristol's line for the extra point but failed to make it.

Now it was Bristol's turn again. After the kickoff, which settled on Bristol's 37, Eisenbrey heaved a pass to Sam Petrizzi who was out in the open and got as far as Council Rock's 28. The Warriors worked the ball to the 21 before being held by the Sagolla-coached team.

Before the half-time whistle sounded, Bristol made another fine attempt to score but was repulsed. The Warriors had the ball on their 37 when Eisenbrey whipped a pass to Joe Dominick, who dodged, tripped and banged his way to the four-yard line before he was dropped by C. Teschner. But in four downs, the McClistermen could not make the four yards, losing the ball.

The third period was almost over before the local team pushed over another score and went ahead. "Charlie" Hauler had gone into the Council Rock lineup and the sophomore back was hitting the Bristol line for consistent gains. He made two consecutive first downs but the Bristol forward wall strengthened and held for downs. An exchange of punts followed but Bristol got possession of the pigskin when Joe Dominick batted down a pass and "Charlie" Milnor caught it on the Bristol 45.

Eisenbrey made six yards at tackle. On a double-reverse, Daniel knocked off a yard. A fake pass gave Eisenbrey a first down on Council Rock's 47. Eisenbrey again faked a pass and made 10 yards. The visitors were penalized five yards, giving Bristol a first on the Rock's 18. Welker made three yards. Eisenbrey again fooled the Council Rock team in faking a pass and then running the 15 yards for a touchdown. Monte's kick was too wide for a point so Bristol led, 12-6.

In the final period, Council Rock tried to take advantage of a penalty and attempted a first down with two yards to go. Teschner missed the necessary yardage and Bristol took over on the invaders' 44. Welker carried the ball on a reverse and made a first on the Council Rock 32. Eisenbrey then made a beautiful end run and was knocked out of bounds on the one-yard line but the play was nullified and Bristol penalized 15 yards. Council Rock took over when Whiteside intercepted a pass.

The game was almost over when Bristol scored its final TD. Teschner got off a boot to his 48. After Eisenbrey made a gain, the Warriors were slapped 15 yards. Eisenbrey made eight of them back. Rich went back into kick formation but instead of punting ran right end and wasn't stopped until he made a first down on the Council Rock 35. Welker, on an off-tackle slant, netted a first on the 15. Eisenbrey clicked off seven and followed by making it a first on the 3-yard line. Petrizzi hauled the ball over the goal-line in two attempts. The conversion point was successful on Eisenbrey's pass to Joe Dominick. Eisenbrey and Welker did most of the ball carrying for the Warriors with the injured "Bill" Moll still being on the sidelines. Al Daniel was used in the role of a blocking back and did an excellent job. It was his taking out of the Council Rock men that enabled Welker and Rich to make their long runs.

Defensively, Ned Albright, Tex Giagnacova, and Joe Dominick stood out for the victors, with Allen and Belmonte playing nice ball for Council Rock. Flatch and Kerns did the most yard-gaining for the losers. Kerns was injured in the second half and retired from the game.

ST. FRANCIS ELEVEN DROPS THIRD GAME; BORDENTOWN WINS

BORDENTOWN, Oct. 15 — St. Francis Vocational School, of Edgington, dropped its third straight game of the season here yesterday, losing to the Bordentown Manual Training School, 6-0.

Don Young's catching of a pass on his 30-yard line and racing 70 yards to score in the second period was the only touchdown of the game. Holmes threw the aerial.

St. Francis missed a scoring chance in the second session when Dave Potter threw a pass to Harry Jackson who caught it on the 20 and went to the five-yard line before being downed. However, St. Francis could not make the remaining five yards in four downs.

The Edgington team made several other threats but the Bordentown defense proved too strong to crack. Luck Revere, Dave Potter, Phil Belancio, and Jackson played out standing ball for St. Francis with Young and Holmes starting for the winners.

Lineups:
St. Francis (6): Ends: Revere, Stabinsky, Weber; Tackles: Kelly, Goodchild, Nataro, McGee; Guards: Riener, Sebastino, Walton; Centers: Garrett, Lally; Backs: Potter, McDermott, Belancio, Jackson, DiBello.

Bordentown M.T.S. (6): Ends: Hobbs, Garrett; Tackles: Massey, Turner; Guards: Hart, Smith; Backs: Larkins, Groves, Holmes; Young.
Score by quarters:
St. Francis 0 0 0 0-0

CRIPPLED ST. ANN'S ELEVEN TO FACE WILLOW GROVE VETS

It will be a crippled St. Ann's team that will face the Willow Grove Vets tomorrow afternoon on Memorial Park field. The "Saints" will be seeking their fourth straight triumph of the Northeast Football Conference.

Eight St. Ann's players are nursing injuries and just how many will be on the sidelines remains to be seen. The St. Ann's coaches, Peter Bornice, Joseph Roe and Salvatore Seneca will have to make plenty of changes to keep their team on the top of the league standing.

Those who are doubtful in playing are: "Bill" Marion, "Reds" Peole, "Moonie" Denny, Nick Lommas, Joe Elmer, Joe Napoli, Moe Caucci and Gene Mount. Four are linemen and the other quartet are backfield stars.

However, there is some brightness in the statement that "Al" Sozio, injured in the Olney game, will be back in uniform. Sozio is a tackle. The "Saints" have also signed "Benny" Kovack, a 235-pound tackle, who stands 6' 3" and formerly played with the Trenton Eagles.

"Mickey" Stradling, who was the passing star of last season's eleven, has again signed and may be in action against the Willow Grove contingent.

Willow Grove beat the Olney Vets last week and are in second place in the league standing, one point behind St. Ann's. The Willow Grove eleven has two outstanding backs in Donald Kinney and Lawrence Leonard, and the Purple and Gold will have to watch this pair of fast backs.

The St. Ann's starting lineup will most likely be composed of: Ends, Lelinski and Keys; tackles, Wade and A. Iannucci; guards, Tom Proffy and Buster Monachello; center, "Mickey" Iannucci; backs, Joe Singer, "Marty" Collins, Joe Myer-nich, and Antoni. The latter star, formerly of West Chester State Teachers College, made an excellent showing in his opener last week against the Langhorne Aces. Opening kickoff will take place at two o'clock sharp.
